CHARACTER AND FITNESS

21.) Because of the high ethical standards governing lawyers, the failure to disclose an act or event, such as the ones described below, is often more significant, and leads to more serious consequences, than the act or event itself. Failure to provide full and truthful answers may result in revocation of admission or disciplinary action by the School of Law, or denial of permission to practice law by the state in which you seek admission. Superficial answers will not be accepted and will delay the processing and review of your application.

If you answer "yes" to any of the following questions, please provide a full and complete explanation on a separate sheet of paper or electronic attachment, clearly answering the question including the final disposition. Do not incorporate the answer to any of these questions into your personal statement.

- a. Have you ever been placed on academic or conduct probation, disciplined, suspended or dismissed from any learning institution for any reason? Yes No
- b. Have you had your college, university, graduate or professional education interrupted for one or more terms for any reason? Yes No
- c. Have you ever, as an adult or as a juvenile, been convicted for violation of any law, other than minor traffic offenses or parking tickets? The School of Law does not consider a traffic offense to be minor if it involves, in any way, operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of drugs or alcohol, if the applicant's conduct was reckless, or if the applicant's conduct resulted in serious bodily injury to or death of another person. Yes No
- d. Have you ever been suspended, discharged or asked to resign from any employment, professional organization or public office? Yes No
- e. Have you been subject to professional discipline, voluntarily surrendered a professional license, or had a professional license denied, suspended, or revoked? Yes No
- f. Have you been party to a civil proceeding in which you were alleged to have committed fraud or any type of misrepresentation? Yes No
- g. As a member of the armed forces, have any charges ever been made or proceedings instituted against you? Yes No/NA

 The Admissions Committee may request further information about any of these questions.*

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Personal Statement

Please submit a personal statement that discusses any factors you feel would be relevant to the admissions committee in reaching a decision on your file. Topics can include what educational, employment, or family experiences inform your decision to attend law school; why you wish to pursue the study of law; and why RWU Law is a good fit for you.

Optional Diversity Essay

The School of Law seeks to admit a class of varying backgrounds and experiences. In our judgment exposure to widely diverse people, ideas, cultures, and viewpoints helps prepare students to develop the skills and sensitivity necessary to succeed in today's classroom experience. For more information on diversity in the RWU Law admissions process please go to <http://law.rwu.edu/diversitystatement>.

The Admissions Committee attaches significant value to these statements.
